REGION OF VALENCIA

Enjoying time as a family is easy in the Region of Valencia

Warm, light, safe and welcoming; it is an ideal destination for families. Castellón, Valencia and Alicante provinces in a privileged setting await you with a multitude of nature, urban, leisure and fun options.

Beaches and coves for all tastes, themed routes, guided tours, museums, gastronomy, festivals, environment and nature, sports, leisure and theme parks are just some of the activities we propose so you can discover and enjoy the area with your little ones.

We provide the good weather, the energy, a wide range of options and amenities so you can experience our land at your leisure.

CASTELLÓN PROVINCE

Coast and inland

Benicàssim / Catí / Castellón
Onda / Oropesa del Mar
Peñíscola / Vinaròs

Castellón, the most northerly province of the Region of Valencia, is full of charm and great contrasts. Spain's second most mountainous province has an inland full of amazing landscapes and towns that will transport you to Medieval times, but also 75 miles of coast full of coves and excellent beaches bathed in the tranquil waters of the Mediterranean Sea.

You can choose to spend your days on the beach with a multitude of amenities designed for kids (play areas, seaside libraries, cycling routes or outings, water sports for kids, water parks and many more leisure activities) or head inland, where you will enjoy the beauty and peace and quiet of some unparalleled wild landscapes. Eight natural parks and over 620 miles of certified trails and two greenways allow you to enjoy great nature adventures with your little ones.

ONDA

Onda: fantastic combination of history, culture and adventure. What can we find in Onda? Its castle, the great jewel crowning the city. Its charming historic centre with its picturesque streets and squares with a Medieval ambience. Its diverse museums with an abundance of wealth and contrasts, where both adults and children can do different workshops and also dream about faraway, exotic places. And, if we still want more, numerous adventures await us while surrounded by nature: brush circuits, paddle surf, canoeing, ziplining, hanging bridges, vias ferrata, abseiling...

PEÑÍSCOLA

This is one of the jewels of the Mediterranean, with its unmistakable silhouette and Medieval port, surrounded by a wall over the sea and its town of whitewashed houses. Its beaches, accessible and narrow, have kid-friendly amenities at the Accessible Point and the Baby Area. The crusader castle that housed Pope Luna has museography to complement a cultural visit, which can also include the Museum of the Sea or the Cinema Routes. Sierra de Irta Natural Park completes the tour for nature lovers, who can enjoy this reserve just a few steps away with over 9 miles of virgin coast.

VALENCIA PROVINCE

Coast and inland

Ayora /Cofrentes El Puig de Santa María Gandia / Riba-roja de Túria

Valencia, the central province of the Valencian Community, has embraced modernity without turning its back on its roots. It offers travelling families different natural spaces of a singular attraction with its lagoons, rivers, mountains and extensive agricultural fields where orchards, orange trees and rice fields are lost on the horizon.

Gastronomy is one of the main attractions, particularly based on the preparation of rice dishes and seafood. Cultural tourism is the other great attraction, either through interesting museographic options of singular monuments that make up the vestiges of past civilisations of Roman and Arabic origin.

This province offers some of the longest beaches in the entire Valencian Community and coastal destinations with a great family-friendly tourist tradition and experience, complemented by some inland destinations that will amaze you.

AYORA

In Ayora, the streets tell us stories, nature invites us to relax and the character of its people makes us feel at home. Even better if travelling with the family. Its natural heritage, unique in Spain, with cave paintings at the Abrigo de Tortosilla and the Poblado Íbero de Meca, offers a wide range of guided tours for the whole family. In urban places, we can discover Ayora's great heritage by enjoying a "family game gymkhana" and the opportunity to relax in its parks or try its delicious gastronomy both for adults and kids. Come and discover the inland magic.

Alicante, the southernmost province of the Valencian Community and known as the Costa Blanca, stands out for its long, white fine sandy beaches, delimited by dunes, secluded crystal clear water coves and prelittoral peaks of singular beauty that go as far as the sea, offering magical landscapes of a singular beauty ideal for family trips.

At coastal destinations, you will find an ideal microclimate for relaxing by the sea or enjoying an extensive leisure and fun activities for little ones, with a multitude of theme and water parks.

Inland, you will discover the beauty of fertile valleys and farming terraces with cherry trees, loquat trees, vines, almond trees and olive trees, as well as reliefs on which imposing castles and picturesque villages are erected, where the tradition of its people, its gastronomy and trades allow you to obtain the best souvenirs: toys, footwear and leather goods, pottery, sweets and nougat, oils, among others.

CALPE

Calpe is an invitation for the senses. Wake up. You start a new day. Forget about time. You are immersed in the Mediterranean. The blue of the water. The sun. The sand on your feet. Breathe. Calpe smells of salt. Travel through our streets. They are fishermen routes that tell our stories.

Find our natural space. Calpe is a refuge for the traveller. The Ifach Crag houses our cultures. Discover its paths. Find its treasures. Experience the silence. The land tells its legends. The lost voices of the Crag claim our attention. You now form part of our history.

DÉNIA

Situated on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea, its privileged climate invites you to experience the open air and enjoy its natural settings and traditional streets and neighbourhoods. The castle is its emblematic monument and its archaeological, ethnological and toy museums are also worth a visit. Its long sandy beaches and impressive rocky coves, and the Montgó Natural Park and Cabo San Antonio Marine Reserve stand out. Take a stroll through its marinas, enjoy active land and sea tourism activities, and guided tours, and visit its markets and flea markets.

EL CAMPELLO

El Campello, located in the heart of the Costa Blanca on the Mediterranean Sea, is a true family holiday destination. In addition to an extensive and rich heritage, this municipality offers a great many sporting, leisure and cultural options all year round. Its 14 miles of coast, the longest in Alicante Province, are an oasis for the senses thanks to the quality of its water, amenities and infrastructure. Also, in summer they have beach libraries and play areas, cinema on the sand... Not forgetting its parks, gardens, festivals and traditions.

VILLENA

Villena is a city full of magic and charm, ideal for family tourism. Atalaya Castle is the city's distinctive emblem. Guided tours are suitable for both adults and children. Also, if you are travelling with a baby, the Castle Tourist Info has baby carriers so you can enjoy your visit to the full. Be sure to visit El Tesoro de Villena, a finding of over 22 lbs of gold from the Bronze Age. Villena also offers activities such as open air routes, music festivals, Medieval, Moors and Christian festivals that, thanks to the city's characteristic good weather, can be fully enjoyed with the family.
